PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH SILVERSTREAM

NEWSLETTER
DECEMBER 2022
JANUARY 2023

Happy Birthday Jesus!

We come like children to a party,
bearing gifts in your honour,
no surprises among them.
They're much the same as last year
and all the years before that.

Some of them have got a bit shabby,
worn and torn around the edges.
Some look as though they're broken.
That can happen with promises.
and some need a bit of patching.

But they're all here again for you,
our days, our dreams, our heart, our love,
given in complete confidence
that you who delight in the small,
the weak, the battered and broken,
will receive them with great rejoicing.

As we light the candles and wish you
many happy returns to our hearts,
we count the number of times
we have celebrated your birthday.

Then we reflect on your love
and our dear little hearts catch fire
with the wonder of miracle.
You, brother Jesus, son of God,
never stop celebrating our birth.

Dear Friends

I have often wished I could experience a winter Christmas when the only reason for a few days off work is Christmas itself. Now that I have a son permanently living in the UK I could organise a holiday in December and find out what it's like. Of course, my son can't imagine why I would want to do this – he hates the long dark days of December.

Here in New Zealand the celebration of Christmas is easily lost in the celebration of summer holidays. People can hardly wait for Christmas to be over so that they can pile into the car and be off to their beach holiday. As a child, I loved the long Summer break and, as I came from a non-church family, I enjoyed the 'secular' Christmas of food and presents and the Salvation Army Band coming around on the back of a truck playing Christmas carols. I remember my grandmother giving me a donation to take to them and ask them to play 'Abide with me'. 'But Nana,' I'd say, 'They're here to play Christmas carols'. She'd reply, 'if they want my money, they'll play what I want!'

This is one of the great things about Christmas. We have lots of memories to enjoy of Christmases past. There's the enjoyment of Christmas this year. And for us at St Margaret's this year there is the expectation of Christmas to come in a new ministry next year.

Christmas also brings a lot of mixed emotions. As we remember the past we feel sadness for the loss of the people who shared these times with us and are not part of our lives anymore. Ian certainly put a bit of a shadow over Christmas for me and our sons by dying suddenly 3 days before Christmas (17 years ago this year). But the sadness is mixed with the laughter of remembering some of the funny things that happened some Christmas days.

There is also the sadness of knowing that for some families Christmas is really hard when money is short and the children can't have the presents they are hoping for. The temptation to overspend is huge and can lead to difficult days in January as the bills have to be paid. I am grateful to the groups who provide presents and food for families at this time and I'm very happy to support them.

For us as Christians, there is the belief that in the birth and life of Jesus we can hope that peace and joy are possible if we do what we can to share the love of God. It would be a bleak time if we didn't have this hope to hang on to. So, as we move through Advent and think of hope and peace and joy and love, we can pray that everyone will experience the wonder of Christmas this year and move into the New Year knowing they are loved by a compassionate and caring God.

Ministry at St Margaret's - On 20 November Rev Rodney Ramsay preached for a call at our morning worship service. The service was well attended and Rodney's preaching was well received by the congregation.

On 27 November a special meeting of the congregation was held after morning worship to vote on calling Rodney to fulltime ministry at St Margaret's. The congregation voted unanimously in favour of extending a call to Rodney, and we are pleased to report that Rodney wishes to accept the call.

There are more steps to be completed in the process before Rodney can commence his ministry with us. Things will continue as normal at St Margaret's in the meantime, with Lynn and Chris sharing the preaching and Session leading a service each month.

It is great to be finishing the year and heading into 2023 on such a positive note. We give thanks for Rodney's call to parish ministry and to St Margaret's in particular and pray for him and his family as they prepare and plan for the coming year.

Fair: The considerable effort that went into the Fair was rewarded with a stunning result. Thanks to everyone who involved themselves in this event, especially to Dean Paul who coordinated activities and to the organizing committee. Despite the rain on the day, we still achieved our second best ever result, and the Marquee which cost $1,587.00 was supported by $1,300.00 in sponsored Donations. Further receipts in November, including from online sales, has taken the total Fair income to $19,728.60. Fair costs amounting to $1,454.24, which include the Marquee, are recorded separately under Operating Expenses.

Lounge Roof: The rain on Fair Day was not sufficient to trigger problems with the Lounge Roof and we are awaiting an on-site meeting with the Builder and Roofing Contractor.

Ipod For Live Streaming Zoom Services And Meetings: Lynley McInnarney has kindly made her personal iPad available for live-streaming Sunday services and some Church meetings. She has been prepared to continue this, but Managers have decided to purchase one which will stay at the Church to avoid having to borrow Lynley's. The cost of $799 is included above in Operating Expenses.

Insurance: The additional Insurance premium mentioned in last month's Newsletter, to cover Natural Disasters e.g. Earthquake, amounted to $9,373.03 before GST and this has been paid in November 2022.

The leaking kitchen tap has been replaced and the Toilets unblocked but we are awaiting an inspection eye being put into the main sewer line across the front lawn.

Funds available for general operations at 31 October 2022 amounted to $176,726.00.

- Friendship Group:
Last Monday morning - 5 December 2022
Starts again - 13 February 2023
- Sunday School: Look forward to bringing you the Christmas Pageant on 11 December. This will also be our breakup party. Sunday School will resume for Term 1 on the 5 February.
- A Reminder - Evening Fellowship. Our Christmas meeting will be Christmas dinner at 6.00 p.m. on Wednesday 14 December at Divine Cafe, Summerset.
